

The Bells of St. Mary's

As humans, the quest to figuring out who we are seems to be a never-ending project. We begin that journey as children, understanding what it means to be a boy or a girl in this particular family, sometimes with an older or younger sibling. It then seems we have to start over again in our adolescence as old identities give way to something new, and we begin to test our independence and what that means for who we think we are. Then, it is young adulthood, trying to figure out who we are when we are no longer defined just as being someone else's child. This re-crafting of identity seemingly goes on and on throughout our lives as we face each major milestone, each major turn.

Organizations, too, have an identity. Perhaps they are identities carefully crafted to sell products to consumers. Maybe it is some service the organization provides for others. But organizations and institutions seem to have a personality, an identity. And, just like their human counterparts, organizational identities are frequently expanded and redefined as time goes by, reflecting new purpose, new products, or new relevance to those around them as they continue to tell the story of who they are.

When St. Mary's search committee met with me in Waco last fall, I asked them what was it that the parish longed for, what were their hopes for the future. Among other ideas relayed, I was told St. Mary's wanted to become more engaged in the community. Someone admitted that they often wondered if the citizens of West Columbia even knew St. Mary's existed!

Sounded to me like an identity problem. Who are we? How are we to engage in the community around us? What is our purpose...other than to be a place of worship for a few people?

The vestry and I have embarked on a project to help our congregation begin to develop an identity in this community, a narrative through which we can tell our story and share with others who St. Mary's is and what we are about. To begin that process, we chose to develop an updated logo. It is hoped that through a simple design we will be able to grow in understanding who God is calling us to be as we share this story with our neighbors and friends.

We will be sharing this new and exciting logo to St. Mary's at our next Parish Dinner on August 15th at 5:30. We hope you are able to be there! Come help us write the story behind this beautiful illustration, a story that God is writing in our hearts as we move forward into the future God sets before us!

Blessings,
Sharron

Summer Parish Dinners!

In an old Norman Rockwell painting, the family is gathered around the dinner table all smiles, laughing and talking. We think of that as times of old, but it's not. Family dinners are an opportunity to share good times, relax from the pressures of the day, enjoy the company of those dear to us, and of course eat.

We are all part of our church family and our next dinner together will be Wednesday, August 15th, at 5:30 in the Parish Hall. Come join us as we share a great meal with a Baked Potato Bar including chopped beef from Smokin' R and all the trimmings. Along with the food, let's share a laugh or two, hear a tale, a yarn, the latest scoop, and spend time with "our family". After dinner, Sharron has a surprise she won't reveal until then. It will be worth the wait. Bring a side dish, dessert, or drink to go with the meal. There is a signup sheet in the Parish Hall if you know what you want to bring. Of course, the unexpected surprises are just as special. Also bring a friend or two or three. As the saying goes "the more the merrier."

Since our family parish dinners are the third Wednesday of the month, go ahead and mark your calendar for September 19th. The details will be given later.

KNOW YOUR HYMNS!

Know your Hymns – Season After Pentecost August +1

About halfway through Ordinary Time in Year B of the Revised Common Lectionary, our gospel is all about bread! See if you can pick up the "bread" theme in many of the hymns ahead for us in August!

Hymns Scheduled for Sunday, August 5

Opening Hymn – Hymnal 522 Glorious things of thee are spoken – This tune is familiar because it is the German national anthem, composed by Franz Joseph Haydn. This hymn has long been a favorite in the Church of England and the Episcopal Church.

Gospel Hymn – Hymnal 302 Father, we thank thee who hast planted – A sweet two-verse hymn with ancient words.

Communion Hymn – WLP 831 Ubi caritas – This is one of the songs from Taize that Rev. Sharron warned we would be singing once she returned from her visit to Taize! The hymn merely repeats, Ubi caritas, over and over so that all may join in the hymn in progress upon returning from the communion rail. Translated into English, it is “Where true charity and love abide, God is there.” For those who did not study Latin, here is an approximate phonetic pronunciation of the words in this hymn: “Ew-bē, car ē toss, et ah ah more, ew-bē, car ē toss, day ews ē bē es.”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GX7tAZIAWbE>

Closing Hymn – Hymnal 335 I am the bread of life – This is a familiar hymn! The video has a few wording differences, but it is a lovely rendition of exemplary acoustic guitar playing.

Fall 2018 Christian Formation

In May 2017, St. Mary's gathered to outline and identify their hopes for the future. Through a survey conducted at that meeting, the parish overwhelmingly identified that there is a thirst for spiritual growth for and by all ages of its members.

In response, last fall Dani Mikel and Shyanne Roddy coordinated educational programming for our youth and children on Wednesday nights. This has been a successful and well-attended ministry over the last year, allowing children who have extracurricular activities on weekends to receive Christian education at a time when all are able to attend. We will continue to offer this opportunity for growth and spiritual development for our youth and children beginning on Wednesday, September 12th at 5:00. This Wednesday evening programming will be led by Shyanne Roddy and Colleen Matocha, with support and guidance from Dani Mikel.

This fall, beginning on September 9th, St. Mary's will be expanding its Christian formation offering in response for the desire to have education for all ages. On Sunday mornings following our service, we will offer our children Godly Play led by Dani Mikel. Ms. Dani has been leading a shortened version of Godly Play during our worship service for several years and looks forward to being able to offer our young children the full scope of this wonderful educational program that helps children explore their faith through the stories in the Bible and through play. Colleen Matocha is excited to be leading the Sunday morning youth program in addition to the Wednesday evening offering. Additional aides are needed for both of these classes with the hope we can have many of our adult members rotating in and out one Sunday a month or every other month. If you are interested in helping, please contact Dani.

Adult Christian formation will also begin on September 9th. After 15-20 minutes of our hospitality time, the Rev. Sharron Cox will gather adults in the Parish Hall, coffee and Danish in hand, for a time of teaching and conversation. Titled, "Life in Christ – Life in Community", this course will explore more deeply what it means to be joined together with and in Christ in community.

All Sunday morning programming is designed to be completed by 10:45-11:00 each week – plenty of time for those ardent Houston Texan and Dallas Cowboy fans to grab their lunch and be home in time for their football games!

The Blessing of the Backpacks

As students and teachers prepare for school by buying clothes, supplies, and making the most of those last days of summer vacation, there is one preparation that should not be overlooked... The Blessing of the Backpacks. This is the outward sign of the inward belief that God is with them. School can be exciting and wonderful, but also stressful and dramatic. The Blessing of the Backpacks remind all our children from kindergarten to college, that God is there with them through it all, so they are never alone. It also comforts the parents who cannot be there with their children while they are at school. Bring your backpacks, book bags, supplies, etc. to church on Sunday, August 12th for the Blessing of the Backpacks. The backpacks and supplies the church and parishioners are donating to West Columbia Elementary will also be blessed. We will let it be known that "God's Got Your Back".

Treats for Teachers, Snacks for Staff

The teachers and staff at West Columbia Elementary will spend countless days and hours preparing for the new school year and the students they will inspire. St. Mary's wants to show our appreciation for all they do by providing snacks for one of their inservice days. On August 14th and 15th, teachers and staff will be working at the school, so treats they can eat on the run or during a quick break would be wonderful. Cookies, brownies, homemade goodies are great, but so are nuts, small candies, chips, crackers, etc. We are not providing a meal, just something that will satisfy that sweet tooth or crunch craze and will be available all day. If you would like to provide something, bring it to the church on Monday, August 13th, between 8:30 and 11:00 or 2:30 to 5:00. The goodies will be delivered to West Columbia Elementary in the morning of Tuesday, August 14th.

Our Camp Experience

by Haley Cantrell, Reesie Cantrell, and Piper Roddy

Dear St. Mary's,

Thank you so much for helping send me to camp again this year. I had a fabulous time and was able to meet some really kind people. We exchanged numbers and now talk all the time. My favorite part of camp was the horseback riding and the canoeing in the lake. My canoe got flipped in the water by accident but it definitely made for a good story. I hope to continue to get to go to Camp Allen in the future and thank you for helping make that happen.

Love,
Haley

DEAR ST. MARYS

Thank y'all so much for sending me to Camp Allen. I had so much fun and met so many new friends. I made TONS of amazing new memories. My favorite part was singing at Eucharist and the color run. This was my first time ever doing a color run and it was a blast. Thanks so much for helping send me to camp. I can't wait until next year.

With gratitude,
love~ Reesie

Thank you for sending me to Camp Allen, I had the best time while I was there. My favorite activities were the zip line and swimming. At camp I learned that we are all family, and no matter where you are, God is with you.

Education Through Music Summer Fine Arts Camp

by Shyanne Roddy

I attended Education through Music Summer Fine Arts Camp at St. John the Divine, developed by the Richards Institute. Education through Music is the study of artful teaching and the process of learning through song and play. Each day was broken into three sections. Music was where the children and I learned classic folk songs. Abigail and Trace's favorite was Pop Goes The Weasel. They then went to art where they were given simple objects that they used and spent the whole week constructing their masterpieces. Abigail made a unicorn named Butterfly, while Trace built an octopus boat that shoots fish from a cannon. Story time was the last section where they heard classic folklore from all over the world. It was a truly amazing experience that my children loved and I am thankful for St. Mary's and St. John the Divine to experience along with them.

Honoring Our Military

For Veteran's Day, we traditionally honor those military personnel for whom our parish prays each Sunday by sending them a gift card and notes to thank them for their service and let them know they are in our prayers. A basket will be set out in the narthex from July to November for donations. You can give weekly, monthly, or make one donation. Any amount would be greatly appreciated by these 9 men and their families. Last year we donated $419.58. By November, we will need the current addresses for these military personnel. If you know this information or have a military person you would like included in the Prayers of the People each Sunday, please let Dani know.

Prayer Request

If you or someone you know is in need of prayers, you can fill out a prayer request card found in the pews or notify the office directly. The prayer list will be updated each month, so if prayers need to continue for an individual person please fill out a new card or let Dani know. Prayers for the sick and those in need are the joyful duty of the Christian community. Help us keep our parish prayer list current by notifying us of those in need of prayer and when those listed are not longer in need.

Donations for the Military

In our parish hall there is a container by the door for donations to the US Troops Not Forgotten. This organization supports all military branches and sends packages throughout the year to our service personnel overseas. Each month specific items will be listed to purchase. The items for August are: paperback books, adult coloring books, coloring pencils, small sewing kits, nail clippers, and mice/rat traps (glue preferred). They will also accept cash donations to help with mailing expenses.

Community Assistance

During July, the Community Assistance funds were used to purchase 50 backpacks and 10 lice kits which will be given to West Columbia Elementary School before the start of the new school year.

If you know of anyone needing assistance, please contact Tracy or Karen.

Message from Marvin Miller

WILL I HAVE TO TELL?

(From the book "Our Daily Bread")

If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. – 2 Corinthians 5:17

Jim was sharing the gospel with Keri. He told her that she was separated from a holy God because of her sin, and that Jesus had died and risen for her salvation. She kept coming up with one reason not to believe: "But if I do receive Him, I won't have to tell other people about it, will I? I don't want to do that." She said that didn't fit her personality; she didn't want to tell other people about Jesus.

Jim explained that promising to witness about Jesus wasn't a requirement before receiving Him. But he also said that once she came to know the Lord, Keri would become His ambassador to the world (2 Corinthians 5:20).

After talking a little longer, Keri acknowledged her need for salvation through Christ. She went home excited and at peace. Then a funny thing happened – within twenty-four hours, she told three people about what God had done in her life.

Because we have been reconciled to God, through Jesus, we now have "the ministry of reconciliation" (v. 18). We are His ambassadors and therefore we implore people "on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God" (v. 20).

When we're thankful, we want to share what God has done.

I love to tell the story,
For some have never heard
The message of salvation
From God's own holy word

There's no better news than the gospel – spread the word!

Bible Study

There's always room at the table for anyone wishing to join our study of John. We meet at 6:00 PM each Thursday evening in the Parish Hall.

Trip to Brookwood

Christmas is 5 months away, but the poinsettias have been ordered so ladies mark your calendar for our annual December trip to Brookwood. We will leave on Thursday, December 20th, with the time to be determined. The trip includes shopping at the spectacular store with its Christmas decorations as well as the garden center full of breathtaking plants, eating lunch at the elegant restaurant, and most importantly picking up the poinsettias that will enhance the beauty of our church during our Christmas Eve Service. No need to commit now, just wanted to get you prepared. This is definitely something you don't want to miss.

What Do They Mean

In the Episcopal Church there are many specific terms. The thingamajig that the ushers carry to the altar and give the acolytes has a name as does the pretty cover on the altar or the rope around the acolyte's waist. Here is a list of terms in ordinary use in the Episcopal Church. Each month, new terms will be presented. The list is neither exhaustive nor definitive. See how many of these words you know.

Presiding Bishop: the elected head of the Episcopal Church in America; the chief administrator and spiritual head (Bishop Michael Curry is our current Presiding Bishop.)

Priest: a person called to serve and minister to a congregation as its practical and spiritual leader, who is ordained by the Episcopal church and authorized to perform sacred rites and rituals

Procession, To Process: that point in the liturgy when the choir, acolytes, clergy, and LEMs enter the church and proceed to the altar

Psalm: a sacred poem of worship from the Old Testament

Ally Lane passed her driving test and is now a licenced driver.

Aaron Mikel recieved the Marian Loep Endowed Scholarship from the Texas State University Family Association.
