Christmas Cookies

On Sunday, December 5th, be creative as you decorate Christmas cookies. Everything will be provided to turn a plain, homemade cookie into a work of art. Of course, they will also be delicious.

Nativity Candles

Add to the beauty of your Christmas decor with jars depicting the Nativity. Add a candle to enhance the scene and fill your house with Christmas fragrance. On Sunday, December 12th, all materials will be provided to create Nativity candles.

Nativity Pageant and Tree Decorating

Our traditional Nativity Pageant will be on the 4th Sunday of Advent, December 19th, during the service. The children and youth will tell the story of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

After the service, we will continue our tradition of decorating the Christmas tree in the Parish Hall. Please bring an ornament to decorate the tree, adding a part of your family to your church family. Along with singing Christmas carols, we will have our Christmas lunch provided by the participants in the Crockpot Cookoff.

Crockpot Cookoff

Our Christmas lunch will be a little different this year. Instead of the traditional ham and sides, we are going to have a "Crockpot Cookoff". Participants will cook their favorite one pot meal and after church the judges (parishioners) will decide on the winners. If you would like to show off your culinary talent, there is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex and Parish Hall. The church will provide rolls and drinks. If you don't want to compete but still want to bring something, desserts would be appreciated. Come join in the fun of this friendly competition.

Christmas Eve Service

Our Christmas Eve service will begin at 6:30 pm. Father Paul Wehner will celebrate the Holy Eucharist and our organist, Grace Culbreath, will be provide beautiful and inspiring music for the service.

For those who prefer to stay at home, the Christmas Eve service will be Livestreamed on our Facebook site just as it is every Sunday.

Whether in-person or on-line, join us as we celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ

Message from Marvin Miller

Grieving from A to Z

From the book "Our Daily Bread"

Though He causes grief, yet He will show compassion.

LAMENTATIONS 3:32

Jerusalem was engulfed in flames, and the prophet Jeremiah wept. His prediction of divine judgement had largely gone unheeded. Now his terrible prophecy had come to pass with horrifying vividness. The short book of Lamentations records the prophet's grieving process over the destruction of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah organized the book around the twenty-two letters of the Hebrew alphabet, using a technique of alphabetic acrostics to aid the reader in memorizing the passages more easily. But using this technique also shows that he didn't cut short his grieving process. He took deliberate and intentional time to reflect upon and even to write down his heartbreak. You might say he was learning to grieve from A to Z.

In the midst of his grief, the comfort of God surfaced. Reminders of God's sovereignty and goodness gave the prophet hope as he faced the future: "The Lore will not cast off forever. Though He causes grief, yet He will show compassion according to the multitude of His mercies" (Lamentations 3:31-32).

If you've recently experienced a painful loss, remember to take adequate time to grieve and to reflect upon God's goodness. Then you will be able to experience His comfort and hope for the future.

To experience God's comfort
While you're suffering with grief,
Try to focus on God's goodness,
And He'll bring your heart relief.

God allows sorrow and tears today to open our hearts to the joys of tomorrow
