

The Bells of St. Mary's- June Edition

Visit our Website

Seasons change! And we are really experiencing a massive change of seasons right now! St. Mary's is still continuing to welcome me, your new rector, into your lives and hearts and still willing to be open to what changes that may entail! St. Mary's just celebrated the graduation of five of our high school seniors on Pentecost Sunday – Ben Anderson, Bradley Gray, Maddie Lane, Aaron Mikel, and Hunter Weisinger. Two more life season changes took place on Pentecost as well – the baptisms of Hannah Michelle Hussey and Travis James Weisinger. And we all are entering into the glorious days of summer with our thermometer's finally hitting the 90s, the school year wrapping up, and vacation plans galore!

But the Church also is changing seasons. Since the Church began a new year with Advent on December 3rd, we have been experiencing the liturgical "high's" of Christmas, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Lent, Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Sunday, Ascension, Pentecost, and finally Trinity Sunday. Now we enter the longest season of the church year – the Season after Pentecost, or as it is sometimes known, "Ordinary Time."

What a good adjective to describe this long liturgical season, "ordinary." For much of our lives are lived in ordinary time, seasons of our lives where we are just in a routine of work, meals, raising children and hustling them to their activities, taking care of the house, vacations, and more work. The high moments – graduations, new jobs, promotions, new home, birth of a child or grandchild, marriage, etc. – cycle in and around the seasons of our lives. But most of our lives are lived in the ordinary times. Just like the seeds planted each spring by our farmers, the ordinary time of summer is when growth occurs. I find it is in the ordinary time that, in the fertile soil of my life, new growth occurs...*if I stay open and aware to God's spirit working in and around me...*rather than just ride along and get lulled into complacency with the routine that life can sometimes become.

Joan Chittister points out that there is nothing "ordinary" about Ordinary Time. She sees this season as "the extraordinary period of coming to see the world through the eyes of Jesus. It is the period when we determine how we ourselves will act from now on." During the season of Ordinary Time, we hear more about Jesus' ministry in Judea. This is the season where we read the parables of Jesus, those teaching stories whose ancient imagery and language is sometimes confusing to us but, boy, when we "get" what Jesus is trying to teach us, they are challenging to the way we live our lives. Nothin' ordinary going on during this season in the Church!

I pray that you are able to embrace the simplicity of this season...yet pay attention to how God may be challenging you to move more and more out of your "ordinary" and into the "extraordinary" lives God has laid out for each of us.

Blessings,
Sharron

Summer Parish Dinners!

Hurray! We agreed to continue our monthly Parish Dinners through the summer...but with a few twists. Since we won't have to worry about time conflicts with our Wednesday evening Youth and Children Formation during the summer, we will push back the beginning of our meals to 5:30. We will also add a little fun element over the next three months. Our June dinner will be a "Build your Own Sub" followed by a game night for all ages. We might do a big Bingo game for everyone....or have different games set up on tables that may interest different ages. Stay tuned for the sign-up sheet for our June dinner, and put all these dates on your calendars!

June 20th @ 5:30 – Build your Own Sub and "Game Night"

July 18th @ 5:30 – Meal and Fun to be determined

August 15th @ 5:30 – Meal and Fun to be determined

We still have a few tickets left for the July 13th ballgame as the Astros take on the Detroit Tigers at Minute Maid Ballpark. This year our seats are much better than last year's centerfield tickets. We are on the 3rd base line, so bring your mitts, wear your St. Mary's T-shirt and don't forget your camera as we join Episcopalians across the diocese for Friday night fireworks and lots of fun rooting on our World Champion Astros to another victory! Tickets are $36 and you must sign up by June 13th, so don't delay. The sign-up sheet for tickets and T-shirts (optional) is located by the door in the Fellowship Hall. If you would like to attend but need a ride or would like to carpool, please see Dani or Karen.

Summer Fine Arts Camp

Prayer Request

The prayer list will be updated each month, so if prayers need to continue for an individual person please fill out a new card or let Dani know. Prayers for those in need are very important and we do not want to leave anyone out, but prayers for healing do not need to continue for anyone who is doing well.

Election of a New Bishop Suffragan

Please pray for this process.

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: We thank you for your Son, Jesus Christ, and for the witness of your whole church in his name. We thank you for your Holy Spirit, empowering us for ministry. Guide the hearts and minds of those who shall choose a Bishop Suffragan for the Diocese of Texas and those who will respond to the call, that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and glorify your name. May our discernment transform our spirits and draw us closer to you, Almighty God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Message from Marvin Miller

Of Pain and Gain

(From the book "Our Daily Bread")

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked, but he who trusts in the Lord, mercy shall surround him. Psalm 32-10

During summer training camp, the coaches on one football team wore T-shirts intended to urge their players to exert maximum effort. The T-shirts bore the motto "Each day you must choose: The pain of discipline or the pain of regret."

Discipline is tough—and something we may try to avoid. But in sports and in life, short term pain is often the only path to long-term gain. In the heat of battle it is too late to prepare. Either you are ready for the challenges of life or you will be haunted by the "what ifs", "if onlys", and "I should'ves" that accompany the failure to be prepared. That's the pain of regret.

One source defines regret as "an intelligent and emotional dislike for personal past acts and behaviors". It's painful to look back at our choices through the lens of regret and feel the weight of our failures. This was the case for the psalmist. After a personal episode of sin and failure, he wrote: "Many sorrows shall be to the wicked; but he who trusts in the Lord, mercy shall surround him". In the clarity of hindsight, he saw the wisdom of a life that strives to honor the Lord, a life that does not need to be marked by regret.

May our choices today not result in regret, but rather be wise and God-honoring.

In you, O Lord, we take delight,
Our every need you can supply,
We love to do what's true and right,
So, Lord, on you we will rely.

Present choices determine future rewards.

What Do They Mean

In the Episcopal Church there are many specific terms. The thingamajig that the ushers carry to the altar and give the acolytes has a name as does the pretty cover on the altar or the rope around the acolyte's waist. Here is a list of terms in ordinary use in the Episcopal Church. Each month, new terms will be presented. The list is neither exhaustive nor definitive. See how many of these words you know.

Aumbry: a recess or cupboard in the sanctuary in which the Blessed Sacrament is reserved. It is marked by a candle which burns day and night.

Oblators: the people who bring the wine and bread forward to be blessed for the Eucharist

Parish Hall: the large attached building next to the church that contains a kitchen and a hall where many parish events and dinners are held

The Peace: the point in the liturgy when the members of the congregation, the clergy, and all who serve greet each other in the name of Christ
